Postage policy

Orders up to £100 in value cost us £0.85 (small) or £1.29 (large) respectively. They are all sent First Class to minimise how long they spend in the postal system and reduce the chance of them going astray.

Packages valued at £100 or more are sent 'signed for' and cost £2.25 or £2.69 for small and large respectively.

We obtain proof of posting for all outgoing mail. Royal Mail pays no compensation for losses in transit. If requested, we can obtain separate insurance at the time of posting but will need to pass this charge on to our customers.
